FROM THE DEPUTY HEADMASTER

Dear Parents, Staff, Students and Friends

Welcome back to all students and our whole College community for 2010!

I write on behalf of the Headmaster who is currently in India working in a number of schools with several students from our 2009 Graduating Class. Mr Dorrington sends his best wishes to all students and families for a prosperous year and looks forward to catching up with students in Week Two. I am sure we will hear about the work of the group in coming weeks.

Staff have been busy in the weeks leading up to the return of the students to ensure we had a smooth and effective start to the new year. It was a pleasure to welcome students on Monday and share in their excitement. I must say our students looked wonderful in their uniforms and I look forward to the busy year ahead and all it promises. I especially welcome the new students to the College.

The new Sports Centre is on track for a mid-year opening and progress is moving along rapidly on that project which will see a dual multi-court indoor sports arena with other facilities including a dance studio, weights room, stage-classroom area, foyer, change room, toilets and office area. Numerous other smaller projects are also being developed as you will see as you walk around the campus.

The grounds and buildings are looking first class largely thanks to the efforts of numerous people and, in particular, our Commercial Manager, Dolores Santosa. They provide a wonderful facility and environment for our students to learn in.

Last Friday I had the pleasure of accompanying Mr Humphrey Firkins and Mrs Carmel Cleary to the Gold Coast City Council Australia Day Awards at the Gold Coast Arts Centre. Each year the Gold Coast City Council announces a recipient of the Gold Coast Community Service Award. This year there were 34 finalist nominees. It is with great pride and pleasure that I announce that Mr Firkins has been named the winner of this prestigious award for the opportunities he provides for students at Saint Stephen's College as well as numerous other areas in drought relief for farmers and research through Bond University. I also acknowledge the foresight and recognition of the Headmaster, Mr Dorrington, in nominating Mr Firkins for the award.

Further, Mr Don Waters was named as the Gold Coast City Council Citizen of the Year for his work in a number of areas including donating his paintings for many charities to raise much needed funds. For those who are unaware, Mr Waters was a former Saint Stephen's College P&F president and had a daughter at the College who was a foundation student.

Congratulations to both these well deserving gentleman. I am sure that when the Headmaster returns from India Mr Firkins will be invited to a special presentation at the College so that the students will be able to share in recognising his prestigious award. More details will be provided in the coming weeks.

Kind regards

Andrew Bell
Deputy Headmaster

FROM THE CHAPEL

Happy New Year!

As we start out for 2010, I would like to share a good news story with you from over the Christmas period.

At the Aramingo Diner in Philadelphia, an extraordinary thing happened during breakfast a few weeks before Christmas. A nameless couple paid for their meal, and then paid the bill of some other diners sitting at another table. The couple only ask that their beneficiaries not be told what had happened until they left. Then, and only then, could the staff say, "Merry Christmas! Your bill has already been paid!"

The gesture was the beginning of a chain reaction. For the next five hours, dozens upon dozens of the diner's patrons got caught up in the spirit of what was going on, and bought a meal for someone else.

The manager of the restaurant comments, "It was a surprise for all of us." One of the waitresses who had been at the diner for ten years said, "It was truly wonderful. I had tears in my eyes."

This is a great story. It makes us feel good.

But there are two things that I don't like about this story. First, I don't like that the fact that the generosity could not be sustained. It eventually ended. The second sad thing about this story, is that this kind of good news about people being generous happens so rarely, that it actually becomes news when it does happen.

Maybe this is one of the reasons why the Angels spoke about Jesus being good news for all people. You see, in a similar way to the patrons of that diner, Jesus has paid our bill.

By His faithful sacrifice, Jesus has paid our bill. It is the most gracious thing that the world has ever seen.

Let us start this year being thankful for all of the good things in our lives, but above all, let's be thankful that Jesus has "paid our bills."

With every blessing

College Chaplain

DEAN OF JUNIOR COLLEGE

Week One of the school year was filled with many happy smiling faces, as the new and returning students created a buzz around the College with their renewed enthusiasm for the year ahead.

The classrooms have been full of activity and learning and this is a great credit to the wonderful staff in the Junior College, who always make every effort to care for and help the students settle into the new school year. Due to this support and encouragement the students have already taken up many challenges in their classrooms. The students in the Consolidations Programme have already been involved in the sporting life and spirit of the College at House Swimming Trials on Thursday. This is in preparation for the upcoming Years 4 to 7 House Swimming Carnival on Monday 8 February, which I would encourage you all to come along to and join in the cheering!

I would like to take this opportunity to welcome back continuing families at the College. It is always lovely to catch up for a chat in the playground and hear about all of the happenings over the holiday period. A very warm welcome also, to those of you who are new to the College this year. I do hope that your first week has been filled with many wonderful stories and little highlights from the daily activities your children have encountered.

Junior College Staff Update . . .

Mrs Kerrie Jermyn had a beautiful baby girl on 24 December. Chelsi Alice Jermyn joined the world a little earlier than expected but both Kerrie and Chelsi are home and doing great!

Miss Anne Riley, now Mrs Anne Balik, was married on 28 December. Many family and friends joined Anne and Raf on their special day. Our warmest wishes go to them both.

I would like to welcome back Mrs Shanine Collavino and Mrs Katrina Riley, who were both on maternity leave in 2009. It is just wonderful to have them both back in the Junior College. This year Shanine and Katrina are working in the Foundations Programme.

New to our staff this year is Mrs Kellie Bell, working as a classroom teacher in Year 1; Miss Brionhy Gillham joins our Physical Education Department; Mrs Kylie Allan, working as a teacher's aide in Year 1 and Mrs Judy Moller, working as a teacher's aide in Preparatory. We are thrilled to have them join our team and are looking forward to working with them throughout the year.

Finally, thank you for the support you have provided your children with in the first week of the school year. It has been a fantastic start to Term One and I am looking forward to another wonderful year at the College.

Dean of Junior College

PASTORAL CARE

It's not just academic

My name is Chris Gray and I am Head of Pastoral Care, Prep to Year 6 and I would like to take this opportunity to welcome everyone to the 2010 school year. I do hope that you have all had an enjoyable and rejuvenating Christmas and New Year season. It has been very encouraging to see the large number of enthusiastic and smiling students coming through the gate at the beginning of each day. It is even more heartening to see them leave with their smiles intact after taking on the challenges of the day.

Taking on the challenges of school is more than just how well your child does in Mathematics or English. The academic development of your child is of utmost importance to us here at Saint Stephen's College and this development starts with the creation of a safe and supportive environment in which they can work and play.

We are continuously working towards making our College an environment where all students feel respected and valued. It is not always smooth sailing but by taking the time to communicate effectively and appropriately with the class teachers most things can be sorted quickly.

Within our classes we are regularly focusing on how to develop a positive and caring environment and the students constantly work to improve their skills in this area. Such skills as socialising, friendship building, tolerance and empathy, like the academic skills, take time to learn and a life time to master. It is important to remember that just as they will make errors in their spelling test, they will make errors when practising their social skills. Neither of these cases, however, marks the 'end of the world'.

Please give your child a week or so to settle and if they have not done so by the middle of Week Two, make sure you let the teacher know so that we can be proactive about the situation. DO NOT wait until the end of term or semester to come in as we need to get things sorted so that your child receives the full benefit of Saint Stephen's College. Educating your child is a team sport of which we are a part. We thank you for entrusting them to us and we look forward to working with you this year.

Chris Gray
Head of Pastoral Care, Prep to Year 6

Student Achievements

Harry Fry, George Wood and Jordy Brunt, all Year 5 students, were 3 of the 4 team members who competed in the Medley relay at the State Swimming Championships at Chandler on 15 December 2009. They finished as the 2nd team from the Gold Coast and the 9th relay team in Queensland. A great result for their first attempt to race as a team.

CHESS

Chess for Students

Children need to be exposed to a myriad of opportunities in their young lives, whether these be artistic, sporting or literary pursuits, to enable them to discover what excites them and what can contribute to their life skills in an enjoyable way.

Chess can provide one of those opportunities. We have found that girls and boys from all backgrounds, rich or poor, sporting or otherwise, including those with learning or physical disabilities, choose to make chess one of their passions.

From much research conducted all around the world it has been found that chess helps kids to think smarter.

The New York City Schools Chess Programme concluded:

- Chess dramatically improves a child's ability to think rationally.
- Chess increases cognitive skills.
- Chess improves children's communication skills and aptitude in recognizing patterns, therefore chess results in higher grades, especially in English and Maths studies.
- Chess builds a sense of team spirit while emphasizing the ability of the individual.
- Chess teaches the value of hard work, concentration and commitment.
- Chess instils in young players a sense of self-confidence and self-worth.

- Chess makes a child realize that he or she is responsible for his or her own actions and must accept their consequences.
- Chess teaches children to try their best to win, while accepting defeat with grace.
- Chess provides an intellectual, competitive forum through which children can assert hostility, i.e. "let off steam", in an acceptable way.
- Chess can become a child's most eagerly awaited school activity, dramatically improving attendance.
- Chess allows girls to compete with boys on a non-threatening, socially acceptable plane.
- Chess helps children make friends more easily because it provides an easy, safe forum for gathering and discussion.
- Chess allows students and teachers to view each other in a more sympathetic way.
- Chess, through competition, gives kids a palpable sign of their accomplishments.
- Chess provides children with a concrete, inexpensive and compelling way to rise above the deprivation and self-doubt which are so much a part of their lives.

For a summary of research please go to:
www.gardinerchess.com/publicationsbenefits/educational_benefits.htm

In a nutshell, this is why children like to learn chess:

- The most important . . . because it's fun!
- They realise it helps them to think smarter.
- In most cases, after only a short time, they will be able to beat their parents at chess.
- They will be able to compete in a school team in the inter-schools chess competitions. Most kids find this to be an awesome experience.

If they get really keen, the chess system in Australia can take them as far as they want to go . . . even to represent Australia at the world age titles.

It's the final Countdown, and the training has begun

The Saint Stephen's College Olympics are in less than 8 weeks – have you put yourself down to play on a team????

At the start of this new school year, there are two things that you really must do.....

No, collecting your books is not one of them. Neither is sorting out which classroom you need to be in and when. You have to circle 21 March in your diary or on your calendar, as this is the date of the Saint Stephen's College Olympics. It's a world first, and you have the chance to not only come along and have more fun than you will ever have in your life, but to compete in the sport of your choice

If basketball is your bag, if you want to have a hit at hockey, or if touch tickles your fancy – sign up now!

Parents, Staff, Students, and Old Scholars are all required for teams in all of the eight sports in which we will be competing for Gold and for Glory. Without you, the competitors, we have no teams and no event, so we need Parents and Students, Staff and Old Scholars to all sign up, get involved, and play a part in the Saint Stephen's College Olympics

It will be the best thing you do in the entire year!

Until next week . . .
