Privacy notice

The Commission for Children and Young People and Child Guardian Act 2000 allows us to collect your personal information, which is accessed by Commission staff to assess your application for a blue card.

Some of this information goes to Queensland Police, and may be sent to interstate or federal police to conduct criminal history checks. Information may also be given to:

- certain disciplinary bodies to get relevant disciplinary information about you
- your employer, any supervisory body, or other person you have authorised to discuss your application on your behalf. This enables us to update them on your blue card application and any changes to your blue card status.

Advice about your blue card's validity may also be provided through the Commission's online blue card verification process.

Personal information will not be given to any other person or agency unless we have your permission or the disclosure is authorised or required by law.

Important information

You can withdraw your consent to screening at any time before a decision is made.

#Disqualified people

It is an offence for a disqualified person to sign a blue card application form.

A disqualified person is someone who:

- has been convicted of a disqualifying offence, ie. a guilty finding or guilty plea, whether or not a conviction was recorded. This may include a child-related sex or pornography offence or the murder of a child (irrespective of the penalty and regardless of when and where it occurred);

OR

- is the subject of:
 - reporting obligations under the Child Protection (Offender Reporting) Act 2004
 - an offender prohibition order under the Child Protection (Offender Prohibition Order) Act 2008, or
 - a disqualification order issued by a court prohibiting them from applying for or holding a blue card.

A disqualified person can apply to the Commission to be declared eligible to apply for a blue card in certain limited circumstances.
