

Next Step Survey of 2020 Graduating Students

In the year following graduation the Queensland Education Department surveys students to identify destinations post-secondary school. Almost 62% of our graduates responded to the survey.

96.7% of College graduates were involved in education, training or employment.

Comparison with the Region and State.

Main Destinations by Gender

